DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

1. It is suggested by the Examiner to amend the specification following the suggested arrangement above.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 1 is objected to because "the intensity", "the board", "the viewer side", and "the beam path" lack antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01.

5. It is unclear as to what the structural relationship is including the "artificial lighting device" and how it connects to the apparatus as claimed.

6. The structural relationship between the "activation means" and "billboard" is not clearly claimed and is indefinite.

7. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the board" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

8. Regarding claim 4, the phrase "i.e." renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Poliakine (2003/0146891).

11. Regarding Claim 1, Poliakine discloses in Figure 1, Large-area LCD billboard 10 for outdoor advertising, whereby the luminosity of the reflective LCD elements of the board depends on the intensity and direction of the lighting, and an artificial lighting device with lamps 20 is assigned to the board 10 for this purpose, for times when the sunlight is insufficient, which lamps 20 illuminate the board from the viewer side.

12. Regarding Claims 1 and 3-4, Poliakine fails to disclose motorized activation means for tilting, flipping, or pulling the lighting device away and possesses only two positions with reference to the billboard.

13. It would have been known to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a motorized activation means for enabling the lamps 20 to be remotely movable via flipping, tilting or pulling into a first position in front of the billboard and a second position away from the front face for enabling access to the front surface of the billboard for various reasons such as cleaning front face of the billboard without having to move each individual lamp.

Art Unit: 2885

14. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the billboard of Poliakine with a motorized activation means for enabling access to the front surface of the billboard for various reasons such as cleaning front face of the billboard without having to move each individual lamp.

15. Regarding Claim 2, Poliakine discloses in Figure 1, a control system 14 with a light sensor is provided for activating the activation means (Para 0048).
